

Dr Anshu

MBBS, MD, DNB, MNAMS, MHPE

Dr Anshu works as Director-Professor of Pathology at the Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Medical Sciences, Sevagram. She has been awarded a Commonwealth Academic Staff Fellowship at the Guy's and St Thomas Hospital in London. She has also been awarded a CMCL-FAIMER Fellowship from Ludhiana (2007) and a FAIMER Institute Fellowship from Philadelphia (2009). In 2012, Dr Anshu was awarded the International Fellowship in Medical Education (IFME) from FAIMER, USA which enabled her to complete her Masters in Health Professions Education from Maastricht University with distinction. She was awarded a DBT Clinical Fellowship in Genetics Diagnostics in 2021.

She serves as South-east Asia Representative on the Board of Directors of The Network Towards Unity for Health (TUFH). She was President of Academy of Health Professions Education for the year 2022. She is global faculty for the International FAIMER Institute, Philadelphia, USA and the East Africa FAIMER Regional Institute, Uganda. She serves as Quality Assurance Member for the International FAIMER Institute, Philadelphia and the SMU-FAIMER Regional Institute, Guang-zhou, China. She has been IQAC Coordinator for the last 15 years, and is presently the MEU Coordinator at her institute, MGIMS Sevagram.

She has edited a book along with Dr Tejinder Singh titled 'Principles of Assessment in Medical Education'. She has over 60 peer reviewed publications and 30 book chapters on Pathology and Medical Education to her credit.